HISTORY

The Mint, established in 1937, is a local landmark. Many music greats have not only played here, but broke here. Stevie Wonder, Willie Dixon, Natalie Cole, Ray Charles, Leo Nocentelli, Herbie Hancock, and more have graced our seasoned stage. More recent prominent artists include Ben Harper, Macy Gray, Billy Bob Thornton, The Wallflowers, Bonnie Raitt, Jackson Browne, and many others.

The Mint has a convenient Los Angeles location just 5 minutes south of Hollywood and 10-15 minutes from the Westside. You'll also be delighted to find a lack of traffic and free street parking. Valet parking is also available.
